

Exploring the AKS cluster - Kubernetes side

- kubelet

- Installed as a Linux Service in AKS
- Agent that runs on each worker node and that communicates with the control plane and other components inside the worker to make sure the containers and nodes run properly
- Kubelet logs can be pulled from nodes, for example with “journalctl -u kubelet -o cat”
- The kubelet configuration parameters are by default set by AKS

